English Boy Scouts Die in War; Hundreds Are Serving at the Front

United Press Service

LONDON, July 1.—(By mail to New York)—British Boy Scouts have been in action in Northern France. Addressing an assemblage of 1,000 scouts at Stratford, Rev.
Edward Digby, London's famous "fighting parson" announced that for the first time in the history of the boy scouts these lads had fought and died for their country. Of forty East London scouts and officers who joined the colors two months ago only four are left, he announced.
They were in the front of an attack on German lines during the Ypres fighting. They charged with great gallantry in the face of heavy fire.
"When the story of the past fighting near Ypres is recorded will know how proud she ought to be of her Territorials," Rev. Digby told his youthful audience. "Many hundreds of London boy scouts are serving with the Territorials. Thank God, he added, those scouts were in the fore front of an attack on the German trenches when the order came to charge. They never wavered. A scoutmaster was the first to fall. The battalion, 750 strong, swept on and took three lines of trenches at the point of the bayonet.

Finally overwhelmed by numbers they were forced to retire.
The minister told how his own Scoutmaster, Sergeant Shroobee, lay wounded in a ditch after the charge until darkness fell and then got lost between the British and German lines. After wandering about for two hours, he found himself between barbed wire entanglements and a trench and called out for a sentry.
Only to be answered to a "star" shell and a volley of rifle fire. He had wandered back to the German lines.
He lay down flat and finally crawled to safety. There seemed reason to believe, he added, that the Germans took none of these boys prisoners; most all were killed and the next day, wounded that were lying between the lines were shot at by the Germans every time they moved.
"That, he concluded, "was the story of boy scouts in action. "I believe every boy here would go to fill their places if he had the chance, and before this war ends many of you will get the chance to show what you are made of."

Dog Case Is Argued Before Supreme Court

(Herald Special Service) SALEM, Ore., July 18.—During the past week the suit brought by the Salem Animal and Humane Society against the City of Salem, to test constitutionality of the ordinance to restrain dogs from running at large, was argued before the Supreme Court.

Against City Attorney Trindle appeared John H. McNary and Frank A. Turner, President and Secretary of the Humane Society and the decision in this case interests the whole state.
Similar ordinances have been enacted in some other cities and the constitutional points involved are that dogs are property under the state law and subject to taxation and hence cannot be seized and destroyed without due compensation, and that cities can license and regulate dogs but cannot order them killed up and killed. Other legal questions were raised and the dog-owners all over the state are awaiting this decision with a depth of interest equal to the European war.

BULLETINS GO TO HOLLAND

DUTCH FARMERS GET WORD OF
RESULTS OF OREGON STUDY OF POTATO INDUSTRY AND
SEND FOR COPIES

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, July 18.—The potato bulletin recently issued by the Department of Industrial and Commercial Survey of the University School of Commerce, and widely distributed among potato dealers and shippers in Oregon, is now meeting with a large and insistent demand from outside the state.

The Bulletin dealt principally with Oregon problems, but in order to handle these with a proper basis of comparison, Prof. H. B. Miller, who compiled it, made a thorough study of world-wide conditions in the potato industry, and it is this that is causing a world-wide demand.

The latest foreign requests for copies met by the University comes from Holland, through the American Vice-Consul at Rotterdam. Bulletins are asked for by the following societies which represent more than 165,000 members: Nederlandsche Landbouw Comité, Nederlandsche Tuinbouwraad and Nederlandsche Mantschappij voor Tuinbouw en Plantkunde.

Four Politicians Who Are in Nashville's Financial Mess

MILES BURNS

CHARLES A. MYERS

LYLE ANDREWS

HARRY S. STOKES

Nashville citizens who forty-six years ago started the municipalities of America by throwing their city into the hands of a receiver, are again considering such action, and the financial mix-up which has followed troubles there has interested the whole country. The men whose photographs are here shown are occupying the center of the stage in the case.

The trouble began June 13, when Mayor Howse and the city commissioner made an attempt to remove from office Comptroller Miles Burns, because important books of the city needed in an audit of its accounts were missing. Burns at once got Harry S.

Stokes, a young lawyer, and he has put up a vigorous fight, which has aroused the city. The mayor charged that Burns, as comptroller, was responsible for the safe keeping of the books. The mayor pressed the case, and Burns, with Lyle Andrews, the commissioner of finance, and J. B.
West Jr., assistant city treasurer, were arrested. Burns went into court to demand a receivership for the city. He also made counter charges against the mayor. City Treasurer Charles A.
Myers was placed under $20,000 bond at the instance of Comptroller Burns.

and Louise W. Paulson, now Louise W. Hedrick. Also all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint of the Plaintiff herein, Defendants.

Notice is hereby given that, by virtue of an execution and order of sale, duly issued out of the above entitled court and cause on the 10th day of July, 1915, upon a decree made and entered of record on the 9th day of July, 1915, in the said court, in favor of the above named plaintiff and against the above named defendants, directing the sale of the premises therein and hereafter described, to satisfy the sum of $212.75, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 7th day of May, 1915, together with $27.05, taxes paid out by the plaintiff to protect his mortgage security; attorney fees in the sum of $100.00, costs and disbursements and accruing costs herein.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution, and in compliance with said writ, I have fully levied on said premises, and will, on Friday, the 12th day of August, 1915, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the front door of the county court house of said county, in Klamath Falls, Oregon, sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, all the right, title and interest of the above named defendants, and each of them, in and to the following described land, to-wit:

The west one-half of the northeast quarter, the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter, and the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of Section seventeen, in Township forty south, Range eleven east of the Willamette Meridian, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said execution.

The proceeds of said sale will be applied in the satisfaction of said execution, order or decree, including principal sum, interest, costs and disbursements and accruing costs, attorney's fees and, the surplus, if any there be, will be paid into said court to be further applied, as by law required.

Dated this 10th day of July, 1915.
O. C. LOW,
Sheriff of Klamath County, Oregon.

TAKE SALTS FOR THE KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat, Says Noted Authority on Kidney Disorders

Recommends a Spoonful of Jad Salts in Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in most cases the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.
When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull soreness in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.
Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
